[redacted] Met with Mr. Crawford Cook, Administrative Assistant to Senator Ernest Hollings (D., S.C.), and confirmed with him the details for the Senator's luncheon meeting with the Director at Headquarters tomorrow, 19 April. Mr. Cook advised that Senator Spong had indicated an interest in accompanying Senator Hollings and that the Senator has a call in to Mr. Helms. Mr. Cook noted that he had advised Senator Hollings, in keeping with his conversations with me, that he was sure the Director would be pleased to have Senators Hollings and Spong come out together. Any changes required in bringing the Senator to the Headquarters tomorrow that may result from Senator Spong's attendance at the luncheon will be worked out tomorrow morning.

[redacted] Met with Edward Braswell, Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, and provided him with unclassified material relating to the United States Intelligence Board, the Operations Coordinating Board, and the Katzenbach Committee report. This material was requested for use in assisting Senator Symington in responding to constituent inquiries. ✓

[redacted] Office of Security, advised that two pieces of legislation are pending with Governor Rockefeller which would outlaw the use of the polygraph in New York state. Efforts will be made by the Office of Security through [redacted] to ascertain the status of the legislation and procure copies of the bill.

[redacted] Talked to Mr. Jones, in the office of Congressman Paul Findley (R., Ill.), and subsequently to the Congressman concerning a letter they had received from State about an arms sale to [redacted]. Included in the letter was a statement that the Agency had been consulted. I pointed out to Jones and the Congressman the problems this creates for the Agency's no comment policy and asked if we could furnish a substitute letter leaving out specific reference to the Agency. Both Jones and the Congressman readily saw the problem and agreed to accept the substitute letter. The Congressman also permitted me to retrieve the original letter. Findley is a gentleman in every sense of the word and appears to have no anti-Agency bias of any kind.

I called Miss Proctor at the Department of State, provided her with appropriate language for a new letter, which she said she would do immediately and send it to the Congressman's office.
